Transkript:

Chrissie is in London as an exchange student. On Saturday, she goes shopping on the famous market at Camden Lock.

First she goes to a fruit and vegetable stand because she is hungry.

Salesman: Hello, can I help you?

Chrissie: Yes, please. I want to buy some fruit.

Salesman: I can recommend the oranges, the apples and the pineapples.

Chrissie: I think, first of all I would like to have three of these bananas over there.

Salesman: Here you are. Anything else?

Chrissie: Yes, five apples, please. That's all then.

Salesman: Five apples .... Oh, look they weigh exactly one kilo.

Chrissie: How much is it all together?

Salesman: It's £2.50, please.

Chrissie: Here you are. Thank you, bye.

The next interesting stand she finds is a stand with all kinds of bags.

Chrissie: Excuse me, could you please show me this bag over there?

Saleswoman: The blue one?

Chrissie: No, the red little bag.

Saleswoman: Oh, you mean the little red rucksack.

Chrissie: It is nice! Do you have the same in black?

Saleswoman: No, I'm sorry. But I have a similar one. Look!

Chrissie: How much is it?

Saleswoman: It's £15.50.

Chrissie: I would take it for £12.00.

Saleswoman: Let's make it £13.00.

Chrissie: Okay, here you are.

Saleswoman: Thanks, bye.
