Transkript

You are an exchange student in England. During the break you listen to some classmates who are talking about their holidays.

Anna: Hi Tim.

Tim: Hi Anna. Nice to see you again. Did you enjoy your summer holidays?

Anna: Oh, yes! I went to Italy with my family, and it was just great there. It's a beautiful country, and the Italians are really nice people.

Tim: That does sound great. I visited my aunt and uncle in Germany. My uncle's got a caravan and we stayed at a campsite in the Alps.

Anna: Oh, lovely. And how did you get to Germany? Did you fly?

Tim: No, I didn't. I took the night train to Munich. My uncle picked me up at the train station, and we went to the mountains together. How about you, Anna, did you go to Italy by train, too?

Anna: No, I took a plane from Heathrow airport to Rome, and that was quite exciting because it was my very first flight. But what did you do in the mountains, Tim? Did you stay at the campsite all day?

Tim: Oh, no. My uncle and I took a boat and went fishing in a lake. That was a lot of fun. We caught lots of fish and my aunt cooked them for dinner. While we were there, my uncle also showed me how to climb, and we went rock climbing a lot.

Anna: Really? We stayed in Rome. It's an exciting city, and my mother and I went shopping a lot. There are some beautiful shops there. And in the evenings I read the new Harry Potter, which is fantastic. I read it from the first to the last page in just one week.

Tim: Wow, not bad. So you just stayed in Rome for one week then?

Anna: Yes, just the first week of July. How long did you stay in Germany?

Tim: Well, we also went in July, but we had three weeks. And it was really fun! (bell ringing)

Anna: Oh, our lesson's starting. Let's go in now.
