Win a week in England with Free4Fun!

You still don't know what to do this summer? Well, here's your chance to win a one-week language course in Kent, England! Free4Fun and ETC (English Travel Connections) are giving away two trips to Rochester. This historic city is less than an hour's drive from London and close to the sea resort of Herne Bay. It is also the home of one of England's most famous writers, Charles Dickens. The town of Rochester is in Southeast England. Charles Dickens often wrote about it in his books. His home, Gad's Hill, is there, too. A popular attraction is Rochester Castle, a large Norman fortress. It was built in the 11th century and rebuilt during the 14th century. Other attractions are Rochester Cathedral, which was built during the 13th century, and Dickens Centre. It has got its name in honour of Dickens himself.

The trip to England includes:

travel by train (via the Eurotunnel) to and from any railway station in Germany

room and full board with a guest family for one week

language course in small groups

two trips to London

large choice of sports and entertainment

German-speaking counsellors available 24 hours a day

Interested? All you have to do is to answer the following question:

When was Charles Dickens born?

So – take the chance and send your answer by 1 May to:
